1. Jazz piano principals must take four hours of music electives, in consultation with their advisor, in place of Piano Class I and II and Jazz Piano and Theory.

2. Students must be enrolled in private applied study in the same term as their recital. A junior and senior recital is required of all bachelor of music in performance candidates.

3. Jazz Composition is offered in Fall semesters, and Modern Arranging in Spring semesters, provided there is enough student interest to form a class.

4. Music electives selected in consultation with advisor.

Crossover Semester for Guitar Majors: All students enrolled in B.M. Jazz Studies Program as guitar majors are required to take one credit hour of classical guitar (one semester of one-half hour lessons) as part of their applied studies in jazz guitar. These students are also required to take two credit hours (one semester of hour lessons) in jazz guitar during the crossover semester. This crossover semester will normally take place in the junior or senior year. Scheduling of the crossover lessons and alternatives to a crossover in classical guitar should be done in consultation with the Jazz

Every candidate for a music degree must display a minimum proficiency in piano. An examination to determine such proficiency is ordinarily given at the end of the sophomore year. Students not meeting requirements by this time must continue to study piano until the required standards are met.

All students must stand jury examinations each semester that they are enrolled in applied study except for the terms in which they are subject to recital juries.

All B.M. students are required to pass a music reading proficiency examination which consists of singing at sight samples of music in compound and simple meters and modulations to closely related keys. Ordinarily this
